March 15, 2024 - Mizzen Capital, LP is recognized as 2024 SBIC Emerging Manager of the Year by U.S. Small Business Administration

Stamford, CT - March 15, 2024 – Mizzen Capital, LP, (“Mizzen”) a credit platform, is honored to announce that it has been selected as the 2024 Small Business Investment Company (SBIC) Emerging Manager of the Year by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). This prestigious recognition is part of the National Small Business Week celebrations that will take place from April 28- May 4. This award highlights Mizzen’s outstanding achievements in supporting small businesses and cultivating economic growth. Since inception in 2020, Mizzen has invested $335 million in 36 companies in manufacturing, business and healthcare services, IT, software, and energy transition, creating 1,724 jobs, with approximately 44% located in underserved low-income areas, 26% in women and minority owned businesses and 64% in Smaller Enterprises. Mizzen continues to invest from both SBIC fund and non-SBIC funds.

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen said, “We are truly humbled and thrilled to receive the 2024 SBIC Emerging Manager of the Year award from the SBA. This recognition is a testament to our team’s unwavering commitment to supporting small businesses and job growth, driving innovation in the credit sector.”

Liddy Karter, Managing Partner at Mizzen said, “We are grateful to our investors, including the SBIC team at the SBA, for the opportunity to support the success and continued growth of our portfolio companies. Their confidence in our diverse team empowers us to invest in strong companies that provide essential goods and services across the United States.”
